

Free AI Proof of Value Service

Kickstart your AI journey with VIAcode

Embracing artificial intelligence (AI) is essential for businesses looking to innovate and stay ahead. VIAcode, a Microsoft Managed Partner, has been recognized for its expertise in data, application architecture and AI. To help organizations explore AI's potential without risk, we now offer a free AI Proof of Value Service. With this service, we can demonstrate real, actionable AI solutions tailored to your business needs, funded through incentives available to us as a result of our Microsoft partnership and credentials.

Why choose VIAcode's AI Proof of Service?

VIAcode is uniquely positioned at the intersection of data, applications and infrastructure. Our expertise ensures we can deliver a seamless, impactful approach to AI projects. With our proprietary AI Accelerator technology, we go beyond typical proof-of-value offerings, delivering more in less time and providing an in-depth experience so you can evaluate the deployment of AI within your operations.

The Offer

VIAcode's AI Proof of Value Service includes:

- + Initial AI assessment and strategy development: We collaborate with your team to refine and define your AI objectives.
- + Data architecture and integration: Our team identifies and aligns data sources to support an AI solution, using advanced data strategies such as ETL and API integration as appropriate.
- + Proof of concept creation: VIAcode's experts develop a tangible AI solution prototype using our AI Accelerator which triples development productivity, so we deliver a more functional PoC in less time.
- + Results analysis and ROI: We will demonstrate real outcomes from the PoC and provide an in-depth analysis of the impact on your business goals.

VIAcode offers unmatched expertise in app data, AI and cloud services. Our AI Accelerator allows us to deliver significantly more value than standard AI proof of value service offerings, ensuring you see a clearer, more actionable path forward. And, because our service is backed by funding from Microsoft, there is zero cost for your organization, making it easy for you to explore the impact of AI risk-free.

Ready to discover the power of AI?

Take the first step toward transforming your business operations with AI. VIAcode's free AI Proof of Value service provides you with a clear, low-risk path to understanding AI's potential in your organization.
